Program of Events

8:30-9:00am | registration

Pastries and coffee will be served.

9:00-9:15am | welcome

Anne Ryckbost, KCA Chair

9:15-10:30am | “Assessment in Action”

Maurini Strub, University of Louisville

The landscape of assessment in libraries and archives has been shifting from counting things to demonstrating value and impact of collections. Attendees will learn about the range of assessment efforts, a conceptual framework to data collection, and tools and methods for collecting meaningful data. Additionally, the presenter will discuss a recent space assessment project that incorporated tools from the User Experience (UX) toolkit.

10:30-10:45am | break

10:45-noon | “Lemons to Lemonade: A Lesson in Crisis Management”

Wendell Strobe, National Corvette Museum

Most Kentuckians remember the shock and alarm felt after learning of the National Corvette Museum's sinkhole disaster in early 2014. After a year of reconstruction and recuperation, Wendell Strobe will share with us the details of the situation and recovery efforts, including the museum's initial response, PR aspects, and the museum's disaster plan.

noon-1:00pm | lunch

Southern-style buffet will be served.

1:00-1:30pm | KCA business meeting

Anne Ryckbost, KCA Chair

1:30-2:15pm | “Edgar Rice Burroughs Collection”

Chad Owen, University of Louisville

Chad will share his work with a fandom community and the process of shifting the care of the Burroughs collection (Tarzan!) from that of a “collector” to that of an archivist.

2:15-2:30pm | break

Fruit tray will be served.

2:30-3:15pm | “No, I Don’t Work in the Cave: Life as an Archivist at Mammoth Cave National Park”

Amy Lundell, Western Kentucky University

Amy will present her experience as an archivist at Mammoth Cave National Park (MACA). She will also discuss the ups-and-downs of being in a term position reporting to two entities: MACA and Western Kentucky University (WKU).

3:15-5:00pm | Mammoth Cave tour
